DEDICATION

The 1952 graduating class is proud to dedicate this yearbook to Miss Edith Rusk, Instructor of Mathematics and Psychology, Assistant Principal and Sponsor of the Y-Teens. We wish to offer this dedication as a token of appreciation for her years of guidance, service, and friendship to the students of Villisca High School.

- Class History -

On the first of September, 1939, 21 angelic little children started on their careers of crime and destruction in the Villisca schools. In kindergarten, we were taught by Miss Gamble. Our class was the only one which ever had to go all day. I always wondered if those naps they made us take were for our rest, or for the benefit of our poor worn-nerved teacher.

On to the first grade with Miss Carpenter as our teacher. Pat Clark and Jean Stamps got into a fist fight this year. Frosty Patton entered from Nodaway and immediately got into it with the teacher. After the first tough nine weeks we were divided into two groups. The teacher couldn't stand us all at one time.

In the second grade we took a train ride to Stanton. We each had a dime. The ticket cost nine cents, and we were all very thrilled about that whole penny we had to spend in Stanton. This year Maurice and Bernard got their first big crush. Unfortunately they both picked the same girl. So like gentlemen they agreed to keep her in partnership. The object of their affection was a little gal in kindergarten. Lou Ann, do you remember that?

In third grade we had Miss Olson who, after teaching our class for about a half year, decided that nothing could be any worse, so she joined the WACs. Mrs. Gray took over from there and valiently pushed us through. This was the year that we gained that sweet, quiet, little boy, Larry Shepherd. The first recess he was here, Jean Stamps backed him up against the wall to kiss him. He always said that he didn't have a thing to do with it, but we know, don't we Larry? Third grade seemed to be a very romantic year. Pat Clark and Billy Span also had a big case on. This year Dale Archer left us to go to Belvue, Nebraska.

In fourth grade we had Miss Dodson who left at the half to get married. Mrs. Wilson took over from there. New faces this year were, Shirley Sanford, Dean Gage, Barb Bontrager, Barb Durbin, Sherold Wisecup and Delbert Schroeder. This year we took the nature hike and captured a nice slimy little green snake for a pet. We insisted on keeping it, over the protest of our teacher. This year Jean Stamps moved to Mason City.

In the fifth grade we were taught by Miss Mercer, who must have been very brave. She managed to endure us for the entire year. This was the year that Peg Kimel stabbed Leonard Veak in the neck with a compass, because he declared his true love was Shirley Sanford. We had a May Festival that year. Burt Larson and Barbie Bontrager were attendants to the King and Queen. Pat Clark moved to California. Dale Archer reunited with the class.

The sixth grade was a fairly quiet year. Miss Miller was our teacher. This year we put on the operetta, "Rumplestiltskin." We then learned how shapely Larry's legs were. Will anyone ever forget how the socks we wore, in the operetta, bagged at the knees??? Pat Clark re-entered this year.

At last we had reached the building way over on the other side of town. Boy, did we think we were wheels. In two weeks this opinion was changed. The new faces this year were Ellen Phillis, Peg Day, Elmo Ankeny, and one of the most memorable events of the year was when James Higgins was knocked out of his seat by Miss Miller, and landed in the aisle on his head.

This next year was a very eventful one. We were now kings of the Junior High, and we tried very hard to act like it. New kids this year were Margaret Wagaman, Jo Ann Carlson, Maggie McKee, Jo Ann Taylor, Carmelita Larson, Andy Crussell, Vernon Lenhardt, Nancy Focht, and Richard Thomas. The big romances this year were Jo Ann Carlson and Larry Shepherd, Sherold Wisecup and Peg Kimel, and Lee Scott and Peg Day. Our eighth grade party was very memorable, with the theme of "Mardi Gras." Also, there are about seven kids who didn't graduate until they had gone an extra day and improved their knowledge of poetry. It never pays to go fishing when you should be at a class play. Peg K., Peg D., Jo Ann C., Maurice H., Larry S., Sherold W., and Lee S. were reminded of this for quite some time.

In the fall of "48" we finally reached the third section of the long climb to what we hoped would come to an end in "52." The new faces we noticed this year were the following: Mary Ankeny, Bill Baker, Mary Jo Bashaw, Waverly Brown, Louise Bryson, Elizabeth Corbin, Donna McCullough, Janice Hyink, Evelyn Gourley, LaDean Jergenson, Betsy Johnson, Everett Larson, David Minge, Bradley Shafer, Wendell White, and Duane Williams. The girls were the most proud of all after winning the Y-Teen ticket sales. This year we also remember when the water fountain just happened to break. It just happened that a few freshmen girls were getting a drink there and flooded the main hall.

Our sophomore year we gained Jird Fidler, Richard King, and LeRoy Platt. Will anyone ever forget the sophomore party? We know that Mary Jo never will.

Our junior year was very full and busy one. Our class play was "Clementine," with Nancy F. in the lead. We also had a stand in the Armory at all basketball games. This year we received our class rings which we went around flashing in front of everyone. Our junior-senior banquet theme was the "Gay Nineties." Donna Sperry joined our class this year. We also had four girls in the Homecoming ceremonies this year. They were Nancy F., Peg D., Jo Ann C., and Donna S..

Well, we are now almost to the end of the line. Graduation will soon be here. This year we lost Shirley Sanford, Jo Ann Taylor, Sherold Wisecup, and John Murren. Our sponsors were "Doc" Strange and Mr. Sanders. Some of the events we have had so far this year are Homecoming, with JoAnn C. as queen and Nancy F. and Donna S. as her senior attendants. We quite well remember our senior square dance. Don't forget how tired and worn out our sponsors and their wives were the next day. Of the twenty-one kids who started in kindergarten, only eight are left. They are Burt Larson, Maurice Hoyt, Pat Clark, Evie McKinley, Bernard Weaver, Tom Enarson, Dale Archer, and Peg Kimel. Now we have been here for about thirteen years and as good things must come to an end, we must bid a happy, yet sad farewell.

~ Class Will ~

We, the Senior Class of Villisca High School, cream of the intellect, do hereby bequeath all our property and our properties yet in our possession to the fortunate heirs listed below. The heirs, willing or unwilling, are to receive said property and/or properties and shall not dispose thereof in less than one year's time. Let it be known that this, our last will and testament, shall in no way or ways be altered, changed, added to or subtracted from, or otherwise defaced, lest the villain be subjected to punishment under the law of this, the State of Iowa.

CHIEF EXECUTOR:

We appoint Ralph "Doc" Strange chief executor of our will.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. LaFollette we will our little red pencils in bookkeeping class.

We prescribe a box of nerve pills, a bottle of colorback, and a constant supply of gum for "Coach" Humphrey. We are sure that he will need them for future athletic contests.

To Miss Gardner we will our "Quiet" study halls and hopes for more speaking.

To Mr. Anderson we leave our broken test tubes.

To Mr. Sanders we leave our flimsy excuses for admit slips.

To "Cappy" we leave our dirty shoes and lost paraphernalia.

To our school, which we will never forget, we leave our books, as we carry with us her good name and the principles for which she stands.

ARTICLE II

The freshmen we leave our quiet homeroom periods. (Where are my ear plugs?!) To the sophomores we will our ability to bluff the teachers.

To the juniors we bequeath our dignity, honor and domineering skill.

ARTICLE III

Peg Kimel and Louise Bryson will their diamonds to Jo Ann Marvick and Janet Christensen. With leap year and a diamond backing you we hope you have better luck.

BARBARA BONTRAGER wants to leave her small feet to William Dunn. You will have to get smaller boots, Willie.

Margaret McKee wills her ability to talk all of the time to Duane Nippert.

Nancy Focht is leaving Dick Marsh her false tooth. He only needs it in the football season.

Dorothy Johnson wills her blond hair to Ronnie Wallace. It will cut down on the expense of peroxide.

Donna McCullough gladly leaves her three sisters to Mary and Joan Fast. She hopes that they do you more good than they did her.

Peg Day leaves her four eyes to Mr. Anderson. As if he ever missed seeing anything now.

Margaret Wagaman wills her night life to Ruth Sprague. Be careful to get in before the early morning hours. Marg was -- when she couldn't help it.

Jo Ann Carlson and Carol Hess leave their ability to catch each other in the halls to Shirley Sierp and Dale Mains.

Bill Baker wills his teacher's love to Robert Andrew. Maybe you'll be able to get A's without trying now.

Lee Scott wants Valjean Branan to have his noon taxi service. Don't forget Carolyn! She isn't accustomed to walking!

Donna Sperry leaves her figure to Richard Cordes. You make such a cute Mae West.

Wendell White wills his girl friends to Dwight Orton. Think you can handle a few more?

Carmelita Larson leaves her quiet ways to Ellen Hedstrom. You know bashfulness is quite becoming, but Nickie never found out.

Elmo Ankeny leaves his good driving ability to Mrs. Johnson. By the way, his speciality is one arm driving.

Jird Fidler leaves his gift-of-gab to Jackie Keats. Keep it down to a medium roar.

Dale Archer wills his billiard winnings to Duane Cooper. You'll never lose a game now.

Bert Larson leaves his height to James Black.

Delbert Schroeder and LeRoy Platt generously leave their Captain Video uniforms to Ronnie Means and Melvin Oltmann. They are usually sailing around in a cloud anyway.

Tom Enarson leaves his hotrod to his sister, Elaine. It is best to keep it in the family, since no one else would accept it.

Bernard Weaver wills his cornet to Allen Marsh. He seems to have enough wind for several of them.

Bradley Shafer leaves his appetite to Candy Stahnke. He hopes it does you more good than it did him.

Andy Crussell wills his seat in General Science to Alfred Hendry. I think you'll like it, Alfred. The class is all girls.

Richard King leaves his royal name to Bob Scott. May you rule over your subjects with an iron hand.

Barbara Durbin and Duane Williams want their love for each other to be passed on to Janet Noble and Darwin Linn. It has seen them through many a boring class.

Vernon Lenhardt leaves his FFA basketball ability to Duane Vannausdle. You'll be the star of the team now, but watch out for flying eggs and tomatoes.

Richard Thomas leaves his care-free spirits to Mr. Sanders.

LaDean Jergenson wills his car to Junior Minge, but see that you don't take the same people to the same place!

Larry Shepherd wills his ability to go with only one girl to Jan Strickland.

Betsy Johnson wills her birdseed to Nova Lea Elswick. Metropolitan, here she comes.

David Minge wills his quiet ways and height to Gene Westerlung. Please make good use of them.

Evie McKinley and Pat Clark leave their close companionship to the other Siamese twins, Shirley Black and Alice Bosteder.

Elizabeth Corbin wills her boyfriends to Beverly Bergran. She says you can never have too many.

Dean Gage leaves his good naturedness and handsome appearance to Buddy Carlson.

Mary Jo Bashaw wills her bold statements to Lila Minge.

Evelyn Gourley wants Reno Smith to have her gum. Don't be selfish. Pass it to your classes. There is plenty.

Everett Larson is leaving his nickname, "Prez," to Dewey Fastenau. You've got a good start, but just don't try for Y-Teens - president, that is!!

Waverly Brown wills her humorous disposition to Carol Jean Smith. We hope you do as well as Waverly has.

Ellen Phyllis leaves her tardiness to Carol Patterson. You needn't hurry Carol, fifteen minutes off your noon hour isn't much!!!

Maurice Hoyt wills his place in line at the principals office to John Bryant. It is badly worn John so take good care of it.

Donnie Gay leaves his lovers license to Glen Hossman. Watch out for the worn spots, I hear he has used it.

Janice Hyink leaves her Buick and a tank full of gas to Coach La Follette. You'll probably have to pick "Doc" Strange up when his diesel quits!

Mary Jane Ankeny leaves her A's to all the failing underclassmen. There has been too many on the failing lists.

~ Class Prophecy ~

As we look deep into the future we find the graduated class of 1952 striving to make its mark in the world.

First we find Mary Jane Ankeny, the new owner of the Sierp Oil Station.

Back in 1952 we all knew Louise Bryson and Peggy Kimel as the diamond kids. Well, they're still diamond kids and still waiting for Larry and Leonard.

Margaret McKee is the leader of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in Tenvill. This kept her so busy she never had time to marry.

Reverend Tom Enarson is pastor of the Hackelbarney Local Church. Dale Archer may be found passing the collection plate.

Do you feel ill? Do you feel as if you might kick the bucket? If you do, try Doctor Gage's Little Pepper-Upper Pills. (Paid Advertisement)

Larry Shepherd has achieved his mark in the world by inventing a typewriter that makes no mistakes.

Carmelita Larson, known to her employees as the "Double Clutching Kid" now owns a nationally known trucking line, "Double Clutchers, Incorporated".

You all remember Donna Sperry and what a slim trim figure she had. Well she has acquired a job modeling—dog collars—.

As you all remember, back in 1952 Jo Ann Carlson and Carol Hess were going together. Now they are very happily married and living with their fifteen kids. Living????

Dorothy Johnson jilted Bernard Weaver for Richard Thomas, the greatest thing that hit Hollywood since Donald Duck. Bernard has joined the French Foreign Legion.

Bradley Shafer, after dieting for the last twenty years, has finally been accepted by the Esquire Model Agency.

Margaret Wagaman has just returned from a tour of United States. She was looking for that certain someone. Well, as luck will have it, she returned to her old home-town, Villisca, and found that "Moby" Hoyt was really the "man of her life."

After a fifteen year engagement, Duane Williams finally convinced Barb Durbin that he was the man for her. They are now happily married and running William's Service Station.

Nancy Focht is very happily married to a certain someone from Nodaway. You can go visit her any time, but be careful that you don't run into one of her dozen kids. Nancy always did believe in "cheaper by the dozen."

You all remember Everett Larson back in '52. He is now running for President of the United States.

La Dean Jergenson is now running Jergenson's Speedy Escort Service in Paris.

Betsy Johnson now has her own musical show on radio. We find none other than Barbie Bontrager singing commercials.

Delbert Schroeder now owns a men's apparel store. His regular customer is none other than "Doc" Strange. It seems as though "Doc" likes Delbert's brand of shoes.

Lee Scott, who has worked for the past 20 years at the Central Market as a clerk, has finally received a promotion. He is now butcher.

Peggy Day is an old maid schoolteacher at old Sunny Slope School.

Leroy Platt, "our model air plane boy," is still building model air planes.

Dick King is now living on his 14,000 acre chicken farm with his wife, the former Evie McKinley.

David Minge is head chef at Ciro's in Hollywood. Wendell White may be found there as the head waiter.

Donnie Gay is now head driver at the Grandview Track in Omaha, and we also find Pat Clark, his top mechanic.

Ellen Phillis is Television's favorite woman wrestler. We find as her manager none other than Vernon Lenhardt.

17: Seniors SeniorClassProphecy Prophecy RememberWhen McCullough, Donna Gourley, Evelyn Brown, Waverly Bashaw, MaryJo Corbin, Elizabeth Larson, Albert Hyink, Janice Fidler, Jird Baker, William Ankeny, Elmo Crussell, Andrew Ankeny, Elmo Mains, Dale Shepherd, Larry Marsh, Richard Westerlund, Gene Bauer, James Strickland, Jan Means, Robert Enarson, Tom Smith, Kent Fisher, Charles

Donna McCullough decided when she graduated from dear old VHS she would like to be a member of the All-American Red Head B.B. Team. So she dyed her hair red. Now she is the manager as she became too old to play.

Evelyn Gourley is now owner of a gum factory. She got so tired of having to buy it for her friends. Its name is Gourley's Wummy Gummy.

Waverly Brown is now a world famous poet. She got her start back in 1952 when she wrote the class poem.

Just ready to open her second night club in Morton Mills we find none other than Mary Jo Bashaw.

Elizabeth Corbin set her tabs for Albert Larson. She got so tired of waiting for "Slats" to ask her to marry him she finally "popped the question" herself. He accepted.

Janice Hyink is now President of the Colorado Women's College in Denver.

The new ambassador of the United States is none other than Jird Fidler.

Bill Baker is now the head artist for S E E magazine. Many of the graduates of '52 are loyal subscribers.

Though Elmo Ankeny is getting rather old for such vigorous activity, he still enjoys driving his hotrod around the countryside.

Andrew Crussell is still living on his ten acre farm, south of Villisca, raising his favorite crop, cane.

~ Class Poem ~

All around the class rooms,
We wondered for four years,
Just contented to let the knowledge,
Seep in and out our ears.

When our teachers were around,
We loved 'em like we should,
Things never got too bad,
But they never got too good.

We know Betsy who likes to sing,
And appear upon the stage,
And Bryson and Kimel have rings,
To show they are engaged.

Wendell White and Andy Crussell,
Were really a sensation,
When they discussed the problems,
Of our United Nations.

Jo Ann Carlson and Carol,
Donna Sperry and La Dean,
When it comes to going steady,
They were really on the beam.

If Elmo Ankeny had a car,
That was as quiet as he
Oh, what a combination,
The two would surely be.

E.P., E.G., E.C.,
These initials we are tellin',
Because they belong to
Evelyn, Liz, and Ellen.

Barbara and Mary Jane,
Want to be nurses,
To make patients well,
And do away with hearses.

Bert's the slim one in our grade,
His nickname is Slat,
His middle name is Glade
Oops! Wasn't supposed to tell that.

David was good at physics,
Lee was a whiz at math,
But it really added something,
To hear McKee laugh.

LeRoy Platt and Donnie Gay,
We hope their friendship never wains,
And when this term is ended,
We'll find them flying planes.

Everett is the president,
Peggy Day is the vice,
We're glad they joined us,
Because they're both so nice.

Wagaman is really athletic,
Especially in P. T.,
If she continues to practice,
She'll be able to touch one knee.

So when the term is ended,
And when summer's drawing nigh,
Donna Lou and Nancy Focht,
Will leave here with a sigh.

Delbert is head man,
At a clothing store,
He has to arrive early,
His job is sweep the floor.

Dorothy Johnson is the girl,
The boy is Bernard Weaver,
Barbara Durbin and Duane,
Are not so bad either.

Bill and Dean are the quiet type,
They seldom say a word,
But when they get out of school,
They'll sure make themselves heard.

Richard King and Maurice Hoyt,
Were always such good guys,
One was noted for his mouth,
The other for his eyes.

And of course you know that,
Tom always used his head,
To lay upon his desk top,
Instead of pencil lead.

Bradley Shafer likes to joke,
In Nickie friendship glows,
Mary Jo has pretty eyes,
Pat and Evie dote on shows.

Jird was the first of the seniors,
To take his physical exam,
We know we'll miss him,
While he works for Uncle Sam.

Dale Harold Archer,
Nearly always late to school,
Was known to tell the teacher,
"Had to have a game of pool".

I guess Larry Shepherd,
Must be the class clown,
Even on the teacher's face,
He could brush away a frown.

She likes a lot of sunshine,
She gets a nice tan,
There is no better swimmer,
Than our girl Jan.

Vernon Lenhardt and Richard Thomas,
Are out for a good time,
I'll have to leave a blank here,
I can't think of a rhyme.

To write another verse,
Waverly could not do,
Because it would get worse and worse,
And so this poem is through.

With two top-notch coaches, "Doc" Strange and Fred Humphrey, the Villisca Bluejays started a new season of football. Although they won only two games, they showed a lot of fire and team work as the season progressed.

The two games which Villisca won came at the end of the season with victories in the homecoming game with Clarinda, by a score of 12 to 6, and in the Lenox game by a score of 20 to 7.

Of course the homecoming game was the most thrilling of the season. Villisca scored in the first quarter on a line plunge by Baker, and Strickland scored in the third quarter on an end sweep. Clarinda scored on a pass in the third quarter. Villisca had previously held them for four downs after a Bluejay fumble on the first down.

In the Lenox game, Villisca had one touchdown called back in the first quarter after a 65 yard run by Strickland, but caught fire and won out at the end, 20 to 7.

The Seniors playing on the team were Carol Hess, Duane Williams, Bill Baker, Andy Crussell, LaDean Jergenson, and Larry Shepherd. Carol Hess was a two-year letterman at end and was one of the co-captains. Bill Baker, another two-year man, played in the backfield and was the other co-captain. Duane Williams played in the backfield for two years and was moved to guard this year, where he did a fine job. Larry Shepherd was another backfield man, playing at quarterback for three years. Andy Crussell came out in his Senior year, after a long layoff due to a back injury in his freshman year. LaDean Jergenson, another one-year man, did a fine job at halfback.
