DEDICATION

It is with deep appreciation and greatest of delight that the annual staff has dedicated the Blue Jay of 1954 to Mr. Donald Holstrom. Mr. Holstrom has taught mathematics at Villisca these past four years. With untiring effort he has directed many of us through our courses. Also he is an excellent Junior High Coach and aided the high school's coaches during the football season. We all want to wish Mr. Holstrom successful and happy years in the future.

Served as custodian
for three years

Our janitors work so very hard,
their job is never done.
They work on floors and desk tops and never have no fun.
So this is to them and their effort,
a little reminder from all.
Get on the stick! Get busy!
Quit shuffling down the hall.

Class History

Our history of thirteen long but happy years started in the fall of 1941, when thirty two shy and bashful little boys and girls entered kindergarten. Through destiny and fate, only seven of the thirty two were to go through all thirteen years together. Those seven are: George Scott, Beverly Still, Ron Means, Lou Ann Patterson, Jim Bauer, Jane Enarson, and Marilla Ankeny. James Black, Shirley Black, and Ruth Sprague were gone part of those years. The others in the kindergarten class were: Anabelle Arbuckle, Judy Moriarty, Lois Goodwin, Nancy Moore, Georgia Graham, JoAnn Wagaman, John Armstrong, Phillip Currin, Gene Sunkin, Billy Wohenhous, Dwylia Kelly, Marvin Hess, Verla Bean, Alice Bosteder, Leah Ne Northrup, Florence Matson, Jerrot Gear, Gary Kirby, Billy West, Donna Finkle, Donald Overman, Margaret Waage, and Lois Shrimpton. We had a little band that year. We had alot of rhythm but made little music. Our teacher was Mrs. Vivian Stinson.

In the first grade we had eight new faces in our room. They were: Ray Rhamy, Russell Acton, Evelyn Baker, Marvin Potter, Alfred Hendry, and Peggy and Betty Storm. The faces of Shirley Black, Nancy Moore, Ruth Sprague, and Alice Bosteder were gone. We moved our classroom because of the cold. Miss Carpenter was our teacher.

Second grade Ruth Sprague came back. Ron Wallace, Virgil Core, and Urias Garey entered our class for the first time. We lost Florence Matson, Evelyn Baker, Billy West, and James Black. A May Festival was given. Our representatives were Beverly Still and Billy Wohenhous. Our teacher was Miss Katherine Meyers.

James Black and Alice Bosteder were back in the third grade besides: Clifford Hendry, but we lost: Donna Finkle, Verla Bean, Leah Ne Northrup, and John Armstrong. Two plays were given that year, one was the Dutch play "Under the Windmill" and the other was "Rumplestiltskin." At the May Festival Jim Bauer and Anabelle Arbuckle were attendents. Our teacher was Mrs. Gray.

In the fourth grade we welcomed Evelyn Baker as a classmate again as well as two new ones. Glen Hossman and David Hanson. However we missed Russell Acton, Virgil Core, and Billy Wohenhous. No plays were given this year because of the war. Mrs. Clark was our teacher.

Twenty seven pupils enrolled for our fifth grade. New pupils were John Williams and Candus Stahnke. Shirley Black was also with us again. Missing were Clifford Hendry, Donald Overman, and Marvin Hess, who had gone to Germany. An operetta "Season of Happiness" was presented by the grade school. Miss Nelson was our teacher.

Four pupils joined us in sixth grade. They were: Virgil Core, Russell Acton, Clifford Hendry, and Marvin Hess. Sheri Shields and Alvis Smith were new. We lost Gene Sunkin, John Williams, and Phillip Currin. That year three brilliant pupils wrote a play "It Happened One Christmas." The authors were Georgia Graham, Jim Bauer, and George Scott. A walk out strike was planned but it turned out to be unsuccessful. Our teacher was Miss Redburn. A few of the pupils attended her wedding at the end of the year.

Jr. High at last. In seventh grade six new persons joined our class. They were Betty Raines, Ray Ankeny, Duane Hall, Marilyn Couch, and Vincent Else. Marvin Hess, David Hanson, and Alvis Smith moved away. Two plays "Beep-Beep-, Clang-Clang, Boop-Oppe-Doop," and the "Life of the Party." We had three teachers that year. They were Miss Miller, Miss Gurber, and Miss Shaffer.

Our eighth grade class grew to thirty six. New in the class were: John Minge, Dwight Orton, Pam Pearson, Judy McCullough, Jack Keat, Bob Andrew, and Janice King. John Williams rejoined us and Alfred Hendry left us. A play was presented at the High School Carnival entitled "The Last Laugh." Our graduation party was held at the Clarinda Skating Rink. Georgia Graham was class president and representative to the Student Council. Our teachers were Miss Peters and Mrs. Dye. Graduation was held in the High School Auditorium May 18, 1950.

In the fall of 1950, we finally reached the last long step of our education which we hoped would come to a happy end in 1954.

As freshmen we were very active, or at least we thought we were. We started out with fifty six in our class. We were joined by Marlin Williams, Sharon Schantz, Edith Stanley, Beverly Bergren, Berniece James, Duane Nippert, Ruby Wirth, Hal Prowett, Stanley Carmicheal, Dorothy Kimpson, Duane Vanausdale Duane Hall, Loren Stuvick, Janis Archer, Janice King, Bonnie Brown, Ruth Barr, Margaret Peterson, Kathryn Stille, Charlene Hayes, Ellen Hedstrom, and Darwin Werner. We elected as our class officers, John Williams, John Minge, Jim Bauer, and Ray Ankeny. Our Student Council representatives were John Williams and John Minge. As our class party we went skating in Clarinda. Our sponsors were Miss Rusk and Miss Kolberg.

Our Sophomore year was a gay one. We lost more school mates than we gained. We gained Gene Murren, Charlene Burkhart, Raymond Kimpson, and Shirley Dollen. We lost Alice Bosteder, Raymond Kimpson, Dorothy Kimpson, Charlene Hayes, Duane Hall, Darwin Werner, Dwylla Kelly, Betty Raines, Edith Stanley, Lois Shrimpton, and Judy Moriarty. Class officers were John Minge, Judy McCullough, Berniece James, and Ron Wallace. Our Student Council representatives were Ron Means, Jim Black, and Candus Stahnke. Our sponsors were Miss Gardner, and Mr. Humphrey. We had a square dance and chili supper for our party. Lettermen were Ron Means, Ron Wallace, Jim Bauer, George Scott, Russell Acton, John Williams, John Minge, and Loren Stuvick. Marilla Ankeny and Jane Enarson lettered in Girls Basketball.

We are at last upper classmen!! This was a very busy and industrious year. Our class play was "It's A Great Life." A lot of time and energy was put into our prom. The theme was "Chinese Gardens." We elected as our sponsors Miss George and Mrs. Yungschlager. Our Student Council representatives were Ron Means, George Scott, and Shirley Dollen. Class officers were Ron Means, Candus Stahnke, Jim Black, and Judy McCullough. This year we gained Janet Guss and Jim Eichelberger. During the second semester we lost Duane Vannausdale, and Jim Eichelberger.

Long last!! We finally reached the top! This year was a very exciting one. Although we didn't accomplish too much, we had a lot of fun. We only lost one member of our class, Anabelle Arbuckle. This year we elected Ron Means, Evelyn Baker, Ron Wallace, and John Minge as our class officers. Our sponsors were Mr. Berg and Mr. Laipple. Our Student Council members were Judy McCullough, Evelyn Baker, Ruth Barr, and Ron Means. As our class party we had a hayride.

At this time we would like to thank all those who helped us through the past thirteen years. And we will always remember Villisca High, no matter where we are or what we are doing.

Class Prophecy

Case History--Los Angeles Police Department

The story you are about to read is true--only the color has been changed to prevent a scandal.

The year is 1964--The place, Villisca, Iowa

At nine-fifteen the call came in from the chief--the entire senior class of 1954 was missing. My job was to find them. The chief's name is Faraday, my assistant was Saturday, my name is Friday.

At ten-twenty I reported at Villisca High School, where the students were last seen. I talked to Supt. Anderson for 53 minutes, booked him on a vagrancy charge, then continued on the case.

At 11:03 I raided the Conoco Station, now owned by Sheri Shields. I booked her on a 903 for disturbing the peace after she shot her husband, Dean Gage.

I learned from the big boys in the pool hall that George Scott, after going broke from throwing too many parties, was now residing at the County Poor Farm in Stanton, feeding rabbits to earn his keep.

Ronald Wallace has just finished remodeling his hot rod so he and his fiance, Evelyn Baker can go to Arkansas to get married. It is rumored that he is making her pay two cents a mile for the trip.

Professor Dwight Orton of the Mass. Institute of Technology, recently astounded the scientific world, as he has just perfected his own technique for manufacturing saw dust from diamonds.

Girls, is your beauty slipping???? If so come to Duane Nippert's Beauty Salon in West Dickyville. (Paid advertisement)

John Minge was recently employed as a dance instructor for the Arthur Murray dancing school in New York.

Jim Black is now working for Ringling Bros. Circus. He has just been billed as the worlds tallest man. Recently he was measured at 15 feet and 8 inches tall.

Bev Bergren finally got tired of driving hot rods and decided to teach drivers training in Bee Bee Town.

Judy McCullough and Berniece James can now be seen on television every Wednesday night, on the Pabst Blue Ribbon Bouts. They are women wrestlers. When Penny suddenly decided to leave town, Ellen Hedstrom took over his job of picking up pop bottles, she also sells flea powder as a side line.

Charlene Burkhart just broke the speed record for the cross-country bicycle race.

Janis Archer is now known as Two-pail Archer, the only girl who can milk two cows at one time.

Ruth Sprague is now the "big boss" at the Villisca Review.

Candy Stahnke is now the P.T. teacher in V.H.S. She decided that it was the only way to keep her school girl figure.

John Williams and his wife, the former Sharon Schantz, are now missionaries in Southern Thailand.

Gene Murren just recently gave up raising hogs and decided to raise cane. He and his wife, the former Ruth Barr, recently bought the largest sugar plantation in Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Means are now living in Sidney, Iowa, where they are raising "ducks". His wife is the former Jane Enarson.

James Allen Bauer, the ace football player from VHS, is recovering from injuries received while making passes at Mrs. Ray Ankeny, the former Beverly Still.

Kathie Stille, after waiting ten years, finally joined the Wacs to be with Dick. She is now the private secretary for General Jack Keat.

Glen Hossman, after electing Eisenhower for his third term as President, recently refused the vice-presidency to take his old job of testing Hazel Bishop Lipstick.

Janet Guss, now the owner of a 2000 acre farm in Wyoming recently proposed to Russell Acton. Of course he accepted and they are going to be married next week.

Margaret Peterson, now owner of Lines Central Market, eloped with Loren Stuvick last week after going steady with Everett Larson for the last 23 years.

Word has not yet been heard from Stan Carmichael, but it is rumored that he eloped with Bonnie Brown back in '55.

Lou Ann Patterson is now the Dean of Men, at the Nebraska University. Vincent Else, who was once Reno's star brownie has succeeded Reno Smith as F.F.A. basketball coach.

Shirley Black, Janice King and families are now residing in Hawlyville raising goats.

Shirley Dollen has been hired as babysitter for Coach Jones' 12 kids in Atlantic. That way she can be near her old flame.

Marilla Ankeny is new head of the Ankeny & Ayres Construction Company.

And so, with the help of Saturday, a year later we had rounded up all 40 members of the class of "54". We here-by declare this case closed!!!

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of the small metropolis of Villisca High, county of Montgomery, and state of Iowa, being of sound mind and memory, supposedly, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament. Therefore, it shall in no way or ways be altered, changed, added to or subtracted from, or otherwise defaced, lest the villian be subjected to punishment under the law of this, the state of Iowa.

CHIEF EXECUTOR

We appoint "Sir Aron Laipple" as chief executor of this will.

ARTICLE I

To Miss Gardner--we leave the worn and torn magazines in the library.

To Mr. Anderson--we leave our unfinished physics problems. We hope you can do them because we can't.

To Mrs. Youngman--we leave our aching muscles. Linament won't help.

To Coach Jones--we return all the raw deals in Government and American Problems.

To Mr. Laipple--we leave our excuses for admit slips since we won't be using them any more.

ARTICLE II

To the Freshman--we leave our quiet ways in study halls.

To the Sophomores--we leave our good grades and ability to keep off the failure list.

To the Juniors--we leave our orderliness in the halls.

ARTICLE III

Russell Acton--leaves Carol Starlin to anyone that wants her during school hours but he wants her back at four o'clock.

Marilla Ankeny--leaves her ability to stick to one man to La Von Adair who has had many recently.

Raymond Ankeny--leaves his ability to hold a job as a waiter to Joyce Freeman. She has tried several times before.

Janis Archer and Evelyn Baker--wish to leave their quiet ways to Donna Burdan and Barbara Ruppert.

Shirley Black and Janice King--leave their book which they have just finished writing called "How to Skip School and Get Away With It" to Donna Vannausdale, Norma Waage, and Marlyn Gray.

Ruth Barr--leaves Robert Andrew to her sister Mary. At least that's keeping him in the family.

Jim Bauer--thankfully leaves his job as Annual Editor to some unlucky Junior.

Beverly Bergren--leaves her careful driving habits to Bruce Jamison. If you use them Bruce you can still save the other three fenders.

Candy Stahnke--leaves her ability to cheerlead to Janet Peterson, who already knows how.

Bonnie Brown--leaves her ability to sleep in class to any underclassman who has insomnia.

Charlene Burkhart--wills her slim figure to Darwin Forsythe. Inheriting this is much easier than reducing Darwin.

Stanly Carmichael--sorrowfully leaves his pipe and tobacco to Marlyn Gray.

Shirley Dollen--leaves her ability to get Atlantic boys to Carolyn Mitchell. Now Carolyn you've got boys in all the neighboring towns.

Vincent Else--wills his job as basketball manager to David Snow. The players have already initiated him.

Jane Enarson--leaves here ability to get A's to Joel Freeman. Now Joel, get off that failure list next year.

Janet Guss--leaves her everlasting cheerfulness(HA!)

Ellen Hedstrom--leaves her fighting in the hall to Jim Baker and Joe Greenfield. Stay out of those alleys boys.

Glen Hossman--just leaves. That's enough!

Berniece James--wills her Drivers Training experience to Leo Davies. Think it will help?

Judy McCullough and Bev Still--Leave all their out of town trips to Mary Barr. What does Clarinda have anyway girls?

Dwight Orton--Leaves his muscles to Dewey Fastenau. Oh, Dewey you muscles bound brute.

George Scott--leaves that Chevy to anybody who will take it.

Loren Stuvick--leaves his height to John Bryant. He eats Wheaties John.

Ronnie Means and Ron Wallace--will their ability to bluff and argue with the teachers to all the underclassmen. Hope you have better luck then they did.

John Williams--leaves his warbling ability to Don Lindell. Don, please don't run Eddie Fisher out of business.

Margaret Peterson--leaves her ability to be queen of everything to Mary Shepherd.

Duane Nippert--leaves his cow milking ability to Nancy Moore.

Gene Murren--leaves his noisy car to Bonnie Ankeny, a former Driver's Training student. Don't forget your earplugs Bonnie.

Ruth Sprague--leaves her willingness to always flirt with the boys to Jean Doan.

Sheri Shields--leaves the ability to run into two cars at one time to Donna Mains. Driver's Training helps, or does it Sheri??

Jack Keat--wills his ability to leave school for coffee during 8th periods to all the remaining students of VHS who can get by with it.

Sharon Schantz--wills her great attraction to the Navy to Ilean Lindberg.

Kathie Stille--wills her ability to write long letters to Donna Finkle.

Jim Black--wills his great stature to Ceicle Wilcoxon. Just call him "Shorty" kids.

Lou Ann Patterson--leaves her musical ability to Mary Himiller.

John Minge--leaves his ability to get A's in Bookkeeping to all the future flunkies of next years class.

We, the Seniors, having spent little time and no thought in the writing of this will, wish you to know that we give these gifts from the bottom of our little hearts. Now having done our best to make you the underclassmen happy, we bow before Father Time's Command and leave dear VHS.

Senior Class Poem

Now back in the fall of '53
The Senior class started their tree.
Twas a mighty one to young and old
And it stopped the underclassmen cold.

The girls would gaze, admiration plus
Ron Means their hero, the lucky cuss.
Then there was Jim, so tall and gruesome
Don't you think he and Lou would make a lovely twosome?

And along comes Wally, in his slick little '40
That boy and his car, they sure look sporty.
Then there's Russ and Carol, the perfect pair
The way some people talk, the opposition's unfair.

There's Kathy and Maggie, (no longer free)
(Bet their secret desire's to go out on a spree)
Beverly and Dick, they're still running around
Bev the announcer and Dick, he's the clown.

There's Janet and Lloyd, best couple of all
They make up in width, what they left out in tall.
Then's Jack and Stan, the worst in the game,
They still shrug and shriek at the sight of a dame.

But our couple most timid is Stuvick and Red
Most all will agree, the boy's touched in the head.
There's poor old John Minge, raiser of cattle
Say, his Ford will be junk, if it gets one more rattle.

Then comes preacher John Williams, the inconstant lover
Although Janet's tall, he still towers above her.
Now comes Berneice James, charmer of guys
She can make the boys howl be rolling those eyes.

Ruth Sprague, a steady of VHS
Looks forward to matrimony I guess.
Dwight Orton's another hard type to place
But you'll always find Dwight with that smile on his face.

But those girls in Glenwood George Scott can find
And to hear him tell it, it's routine grind.
Then comes Jim Black, smallest senior by far
But don't mistake him, he's right up to par.

There's Judy McCullough, a far cry from cupid
But has that girl got brains, she'll make you look stupid.
Then come Ellen and Charlene, the girls with the charms
They'd giggle and shriek at a boy in their arms.

Each noon at 12:30 you'll see Bob and Ruth Barr
Stay right with him "Hootchie", that's a pretty hot car.
There's Sharon and Evelyn, the best of friends
Those gals and their diamond? What romantic trends.

That's a few of our classmates, the wonderful fellows
Both loyal and true till we swing from the gallows.
So we leave VHS, the school not to fear
But most faces mentioned won't appear here next year.

This year book of the Class of 1954 is an attempt to capture and preserve the many memories of our school days. We have recorded on these pages some of the happenings of our past days of school, and the names and pictures of our teachers, classmates, and friends. When we review these pages in the years to come, may they bring back happy recollections of our high school days.

The Student Council co-ordinates all student activities. Although the Council has no actual authority they can make recommendations to the administration. The Student Council selects assemblies, supervises cheerleader elections, and helps solve problems of the school. This year they set up a system by which to pass to lunch and made penants of conference schools for basketball. The Council was first organized in 1949. They try to bring the students and faculty members closer together. Members are elected from each home room with the presidents of the Junior, Senior, and Junior High classes, and the editor of the school paper as beneficial members.

Mixed Chorus

The Chorus was made up of high school students selected by the director Mr. Paul Thompson. A Christmas choral program and a program at cooking school were put on. The chorus sang in the festival at Shenandoah. Practice was every Tuesday and Thursday morning, with Elaine Enarson acting as accompanist. Girls Glee Club was held Thursday 8th period while Boys Glee Club practiced Friday 8th period. Mr. Thompson had special tryouts for small groups and a Boys Quartet and a Girls Sextet were formed.

Band

The Band worked hard this year to earn money for new suits, which they hope to purchase next season. A Mothers Council was formed to help them raise money. They performed in many ways this year. Some of these were; formations at football games, Homecoming parade, helped chorus on their Christmas program and cooking school. The director was Mr. Paul Thompson.

The Journalism Class is one of the most popular classes in high school due to the experience and the fun the students have in putting out the Volcano. The school paper is published monthly. The Editor was Evelyn Baker with Miss Florence Burrish as sponsor.

Hi-Y Club

Clean Sport, Clean Speech, Clean Living, is the platform of the Hi-Y Boys. They try to spread this throughout the school. The boys had movies during meetings, donated to the Red Cross, had Installation of officers, and played Hi-Y Tournament basketball. They sponsored a dance after a basketball game. The club worked hard raising money to help promote club work.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America were organized in Villisca in 1938. Seventy-two active members made up the Villisca Chapter this year.

Everyone in FFA is kept very busy. Some of the events were: National Convention held at Kansas City, Missouri, Parent-Son Banquet, Basketball games, hay rides, and field trips.

They had many ways to make money, the largest project was work day. This is a day set aside for all FFA members to work and turn the wages into the Treasury. This finances the Parent-Son Banquet.

Football

Nine returning lettermen and a large group of promising newcomers greeted coach Ken Jones at opening football drill, and prospects for a successful season were bright.

Opening the season August 24, at the Bluejays field. The Jays posted an impressive 26 to 2 win over the Bedford Bulldogs. The Jays struck early and the hapless Bulldogs were no match.

In the second game of the season the Atlantic Trojans arose victor over the Bluejays defeating them 27 to 12 on the Atlantic field. The strong line of the Trojans proved too much for the Bluejays as they fell behind by two touchdowns in the first half and failed to make up this ground in the final half of the game.

In the second conference game of the season the Jays squeezed out a 12 to 6 victory over the Shenandoah eleven. Both of the Jays scores came in the last nine minutes of the game.

Disaster hit the Jays in their fourth game of the season. When the Villisca team traveled to Glenwood to play the Rams on their home field, neither team scored the first half. But in the last half, the Jays couldn't stop the Glenwood eleven as they crossed the Jay's goal four times.

Fighting back hard after taking a 24 to 0 defeat at Glenwood, the Jays won their homecoming by beating a pesky Corning team for the first time in four years. The final score was 33 to 14.

In playing the sixth game of the season, the Jays met very little opposition and posted an easy 33 to 18 win over a weak Creston team. The Jays struck early and then the reserves took over and held the lead. The victory brought the Jays up to 3 wins and 2 losses in conference play.

The seventh game of the season was played against the Red Oak Tigers on their home field. The Bluejays fell behind 20 to 7 early in the game and failed to stage a comeback in the final two periods of play. Both teams played terrific defense the last half with neither team scoring.

Highlight of the season came in the last conference game of the season. A fighting Bluejay eleven was the master all evening and came out on top with a 19 to 6 victory over their traditional rivals Clerinda.

The last game of the season was played on the Jay's home field against the Big Reds from Missouri Valley. The Big Red's hadn't been beaten by an Iowa school but the Jays handled them in good fashion and came out with a decisive 31 to 14 win. The victory gave the Jays 6 wins and 3 losses for a fine season record. Villisca was fourth in the Hawkeye-Eight Conference standings.

Villisca was well represented on the All-Conference selections by placing two members on the first team and two on the second team. Those on the first team were: Quarterback Ron Means and Tackle Al Marsh, a Junior. Ron was Honorary Captain on the All-Southwest team. Guard Dewey Fastenau and Center Jon Goodman, both Juniors, were on the second team All-Conference.

FIRST TEAM RUNNING "I" FORMATION.

Coach Maddocks guided his girls basketball team to one of their most successful seasons. At Stennet during the county tournament, the Jayettes defeated Elliot, rated second best team in the county, and Stennett to reach the finals. Over powered by Wales strength they had to settle for runner-up. In District play they won the consolation over New Market. The girls scored 816 points to their opponents 1037 through the year and finished the season with 5 wins and 15 defeats. Jane Enarson was Honorable Mention All-Southwest, Carol Patterson and Marilla Ankeny made the All Tournament team with Marilla as Honorary Captain.

JR - HI SPORTS

The Junior High football squad, coached by Wayne Maddocks, finished their season with 2 wins, 2 ties, and 1 defeat. The Junior Jays averaged 10.6 points per game to their opponents 10.4.

The Basketball team, lacking height, was able to win only 1 game in 14 starts. Coach Holstrom said his boys had will and determination to win, which is the important factor.

JR. HIGH CHEERLEADERS; Jeannie Richey, Nita Brown, Delores Peterson, Beverly Weaver, Shirley Askloff, Connie Jamison, and Judd Nordyke.
