Dedication

On behalf of the Villisca Yearbook Staff we would like to dedicate the 2009-2010 yearbook to Wayne and Nadine Johnson. Your support and interest in the students is overwhelming! You have been the biggest Blue Jay fans even after your children have graduated!

Wayne Johnson is a graduate from the class of 1946. He drove a bus part time and full time from 1965-1999. Nadine worked in the lunchroom for several years. In December 1999 Wayne suffered a heart attack and was unable to drive the bus due to doctor's orders. Their love for Villisca started with their five children who graduated from Villisca High School. Nadine suffered from illness which forced her to retire. "This graduating class will be my last class to complete high school. They rode my bus when they were in kindergarten. They weren't hardly big enough to get on the bus," Wayne says. Wayne and Nadine love to watch Villisca sports of all types and will continue to support their favorite school!

In Memory Of

The Class of 2010 would like to recognize the loss of our beloved classmate,

Matt Jergenson.

Matthew Ray Jergenson was born on January 31, 1992 in Omaha, NE. He is the son of Lori Lee (Himes) and the late Mitchell Ray Jergenson.

Throughout his junior high and high school years, Matt was involved in football, FFA, show Choir, and choir. He enjoyed his job at the Henry Doorly Zoo and being able to work with the animals there. He enjoyed fishing and hanging out with friends. He was interested in the Anne Rice vampire chronicles and wrestling.

Some may say he was the "accident prone goofball" of the class, considering freshman year he stuck his pen in his ear only to lose the cap. After coming back from the nurse's office, he proudly stated that he had to go to the emergency room to have the cap removed. Sophomore year, after a choir contest, he ran towards the bus. Little did Matt know that there were cables that were knee high. He tripped over them and did a complete front flip. Also, in World History, we would stop the class to wake Matt up, who would be sitting up, eyes closed, and fast asleep. He also came to school with Smurf blue hair.

Even though he may have been the "accident prone goofball", I think the whole class could agree that he was very down to earth and very smart. Matt had a big heart and would always help people with their problems.

During the 2010 Homecoming week, on September 16, 2009, the Senior class received tragic news. Matt had passed away that Coronation morning.

As the years go by, our lives go on, fond memories of Matt will remain in our hearts eternally. He is greatly missed and forever remembered. The hearts of the Class of 2010 go out to the family.

The 2009 Softball team had a successful season. The team finished third in the Corner Conference standings with a record of 10-6 and an overall record of 11-11 for the season. Due to weather and renovations, the girls were forced to play with a packed schedule. Even with several distractions the team played tough and stuck together. The Bluejays lost four key senior players at the end of their 2009 season leaving the rest for the team knowing that they have big shoes to fill in the 2010 season. By, Kate Franson

BASBALL

Even though the baseball season started off slow, the boys worked hard to improve. It showed as the boys won a few close games including the game against Stanton. When Mr. Quick, the coach, was asked what the outlook is for next season, he commented, "We lost a good senior class, but we have some young guys that are ready to step up and fill in. I look for us to have a good year in 2010." By, Whitney Storrow and Devon Long

The 2009 cross country season was a new beginning. With a higher number of runners then years past the team experienced more success. Colton Blay lead the boys through the season with him medaling at all meets. Marcus Taylor medaled in two of the meets. Lilly Berggren lead the girls by medaling four of the meets. The season ended at the District meet in Greenfield, Iowa with Colton finishing eleventh.

Enthusiasm and competitiveness helped the volleyball team experience success during the '09 season. The seniors finished their high school career by trying to inspire positive attitudes in all the players. With a varsity team made up of players from freshmen to seniors, the players had to work hard to play as one. Coach Wood commented, "We learned to play as a team and enjoy the game."

Recap of the Season

The 2009 football team set out to prove everyone wrong. Although many people held low expectations for the season, the team believed in each other and the talent they had. Coach Hults said, "It was a good season, with outstanding, hard-working seniors whose leadership will be missed." This year we finished 4-5, only one win away from making it to the post-season. Next year the seniors will once again be missed, and the juniors will step in and fill their leadership roles.

"Everybody do the Bluejay rumble," were popular words to hear at Friday night football games. The football cheerleaders braved the cold nights to support the team and inspire the crowd. The voices of eight girls rang as one as they pumped up the bludge fans. This year's cheerleaders displayed a great deal of trust in one another as they stunted more than any other year. Overall the cheerleaders this year were a great asset to the fan base of our impressive football team's season.

Veteran's Day

Twenty-three Seniors pulled together in record time to create one of the best Veteran's Day programs at Villisca High School. "I think the program went really well, all the seniors worked together and we made it one of the best Veteran's Day programs this school has seen," said Kira Gage when asked her opinion on the program. Many comments were shared about the program, and it also inspired the Juniors to do their best next year to follow in the Seniors' footsteps. Brittany Smith and Dani Archer

Cheer

The 2009-2010 basketball cheerleaders were loud and proud to show their school spirit. The cheerleaders worked hard and led the adult and high school spectator sections in loud cheers such as "The Rumble," "Blue and White," and "Hey Ho." Dani Ives tried some new stunts that helped get the crowd into the cheering. Overall, the basketball cheerleaders worked hard and helped keep the fans in the game.

This year's team had a good season, and enjoyed every minute playing the game. Also, younger players had the opportunity to step up and gain some experience. Coach Obermeier commented, "We are looking forward to next year as we return five players who have started games during this year's season, including our top two scorers and top three rebounders. We finished the season on an up note, beating Stanton in overtime in the opening round of districts and losing to Corning by one in the second round, after making a good comeback."

The Season
New coach, new start. Coach Donna Williams worked the team hard until everyone's full potential shined. The season record may not show the passion behind each and every player, but it was evident through the team's determination, hard work, and perseverance. With a young team, the leadership was distributed among many different people, but it was mostly laid on the shoulders of the two seniors, who led the team through a tough season with a positive attitude.

We had a good year this year. We made our goal for ad sales and got the yearbook club out of the red and into the black. We had some bumps along the way some pressure in the middle of the year. However, we had members come out of the wood work and step up. Ms. Sukup, our advisor, might have had a couple of heart attacks when the final deadline was approaching. The senior pages were not finished and her seniors were no where to be found. Yikes. But thanks to endless hours on the computer she was able to breath a sigh of relief when we came through and made an incredible yearbook.

"Just Another High School Play"

The 2009 fall play, "Just Another High School Play", is a humorous story of a group of kids who lost their director. In this case, our director Diana Sunderman disappears only leaving a note saying that she is going to Mexico and changes her name to "Muy Guapa." With lack of direction, the kids take on numerous scenes from several different plays including, Hamlet, Little Women, and many others. The result is a complete a disaster. In the end, Diana Sunderman (aka "Muy Guapa") makes her appearance with the shocking story that Kelci, an actor in the play, stuffed Diana in the trunk of her car.

Once again, the Villisca wrestlers joined forces with Clarinda to try and put together a dominating team. Five boys made the trip to Clarinda everyday, and represented Villisca well. Chuck Appel and Austin Greig both qualified for the Hawkeye Ten District qualifier. Although neither continued their journey to state, they still fought hard and put forth a good effort.

Leadership SPOTLIGHT

Courtney Auxier in the art room working on some of her amazing and creative artwork. Here she was working on her bottle sculpture, which didn't exactly live. Courtney is a good leader because she always gets right to work and sets an example for the other students.

John Fletcher, standing next to his art work he has created during the school year. He has always procrastinated on his art, but managed to complete his assigned work. John has always been a good friend to others, and treats others the way how they would like to be treated, making him a good leader.

Fun Art Times

Our Art students have worked very hard throughout the year to create a body of work that would well represent Villisca. The Corner Conference Show is not all about the awards, it is about letting the people in our communities see the talent of our students and helping them gain confidence in showing their work to the public. Without this show many people would miss out on the works of young artists. Art is about expression and sharing a part of yourself with the viewer.

"All the students had a great showing at the Corner Conference Show and Fine Arts Night was a hit"
- Art Teacher Ms. Sukup

The pride one gets for that, is much more valuable, than the award that comes with it.

The Villisca Art Department represented their finest at the Corner Conference Art Show located at Fremont Mills High School. The students took the trek to Tabor, May 3rd to view the conference display. The Villisca Art students received twelve Honorable Mentions, ten Third places, thirteen Second places, nine First places, and one Best of Show. Congratulations everyone for a great show.

2010 Track Boys

Run, Jump,

Villisca boys track team exerted much time and energy in readying themselves for the 2010 track season. Coach Dan Lock encouraged us to be the best we could be. One outstanding member, Austin Greig (Junior), participated in the annual state track meet. Austin ran the 800 meters with a time of two minutes and six seconds.

Overall, as a team, we placed in a variety of events and strived to get better. We are looking forward to the upcoming season despite the loss of valued seniors.

National Honor Society

It's an Honor

By Alex Herzberg,

The National Honor Society students have been hard at work this year. The group has hosted blood drives for the 2009-2010 year. Although there were a few set backs including a scheduling error and complications with the weather, NHS has it's goals. As always, the students in NHS have been giving back to the Villisca Community through their many hours of service, all while maintaining a code of honor and excellence in academic endeavors.

Throughout the last year the FFA chapter has been involved in many activities ranging from hard work to help the community to riding roller coasters at Adventureland for the officer retreat. We had 27 active members in our chapter this year, there was never a shortage of leadership found within our group. We had a very active year with going to many activities at the Enrichment Center to help in anyway possible. The whole chapter showed premier leadership, personal growth, and we believe that they will have career success!

SPEECH 2010

The speech team had another successful year bringing home a total of seven all-state nominations--two in large group and five in individual. A group of talented seniors helped lead the team. Y-teens is a group of all girls working together to help the community and others. One thing the Y-teens did this year was to visit the nursing home, where the girls chatted, painted fingernails, wrapped Christmas presents and played Wii with the residents. Also, for Halloween, the group did trick-or-treat for UNICEF. The money raised with the trick-or-treat project was used to help those who cannot afford to do things on their own. One last project organized by Y-teens was the food drive to collect food for the food pantry.

'A Night to Treasure'

The 2010 Prom theme was, "A Night to Treasure." The school gymnasium was decorated with ships, a waterfall, a river, a deck, a bridge, and many other things. The royalty consisted of a Prince and Princess--Nick Eblen and Katelyn Kernén, and a King and Queen--Nick Berggren and Kate Franson. The students and their guests danced the night away, drank punch, ate cake, and all around had a good time. Afterwards, the students continued to enjoy themselves with the After-Prom activities.
